GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS BODDIE TO ETHICS COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Mayo Boddie of Rocky Mount to the State Ethics Commission.

Boddie is chairman of Boddie-Noell Enterprises. He received his Bachelor's degree from UNC at Chapel Hill.

The commission establishes ethical standards for certain public officials, state employees, and appointees to nonadvisory state boards and commissions; requires public disclosure of economic interests by certain persons in the executive, legislative and judicial branches; amends the lobbying laws; and makes conforming changes. The commission has eight members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoint two members.
